Zechariah

C1-3

C1 The Medes and Persians have conquered the Babylonians. It is time for God's people to return. Both the people and prophets are dead (5). The prophet has a vision.

He sees four horses: two reds, brown, white, they were patrolling the earth. There was peace everywhere. It was the end of the seventy year period (12).

There's an extraordinary comparison. God's anger toward his own was little in comparison to his anger with all other nations that oppressed them (15-16).

Then there were horns: representing nations scattering Judah and Israel. Then four blacksmiths to terrorize the terrorizing nations.

C2 The angels measure Jerusalem. Things are measured when preparing to receive substance. In this case people are going to be heading him to Jerusalem. What an extraordinary time. Now, it is a period of God's protection from all who harmed them.

God is so marvelous this way . After we have learned what we need to learn. We need to remember it is His name that is on the line. There are times when we really need to enjoy complete what His is doing. There are days of tragedy, days of boredom, days of misunderstanding, so when those days of fun and enjoyment are upon us believers need to relish the period (10-12).

C3 The priest are central to following The Lord. They had to be rededicated.

Make no mistake. Given every step nearing victory Satan is right there making accusations.

Joshua the high priest needed to be rededicated. His clothes were filthy. He and the priests were representing the future, The Branch (Jesus). This is what is so marvelous. God can the sins and change circumstances in a single day
